Art Technique and Theory Fall 2024 Semester

Wednesdays: Beginning September 11, 3PM - 4:30PM

This 10-session course is designed to enable anyone who always wanted to create art, and for those who want to be better at creating art.

The instructor, Prof. William J. Castello MDY, MFA, is a lifelong professional artist, journalist and professor of communications. This semester's course teaches the individual about the techniques of drawing and rendering in pencil and graphite, and to approach art as an artist would.

By taking these classes, you will learn to the detailed world as an artist does, and the ways an artist transforms that world around them into pieces of art. Far more than just drawing lessons, this experience will add detail, creativity and the joy of creating great pieces of art, to your life.

IF YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE AN ARTIST... JOIN US THIS FALL!

$225 for Non-Members/$210 Museum Members (Must Be Paid in Advance)

(90-minute classes).
